♫ Arr. A. Durán Muñoz
♫ Fco Gabriel Pérez Garrido

The image displays a drumset score for a medley of five songs. The notation is written on ten staves, each representing a different drum part. The first staff includes a key signature change from one sharp (F#) to two sharps (F# and C#) at the beginning of the second measure. The notation uses various rhythmic symbols: 'x' for cymbals, 'o' for snare, and 'o' for bass drum. The score is divided into two main sections, labeled '1.' and '2.', which correspond to the first and second songs in the medley. The notation is complex, with many measures containing multiple rhythmic patterns. The score ends with a double bar line on the tenth staff.

This image displays a musical score consisting of 11 staves. The notation is written in a system with a common time signature (C) and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is primarily composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. The first four staves show a consistent pattern of eighth notes, with some measures containing rests. The fifth staff introduces a more complex rhythmic structure, featuring sixteenth notes and a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#). The sixth staff continues this complex pattern, while the seventh staff returns to a simpler eighth-note structure. The eighth staff features a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#) and includes a measure with a whole rest. The ninth staff returns to the eighth-note pattern, and the tenth staff continues it. The final staff concludes the piece with a key signature change to one sharp (F#) and a final measure with a whole rest.
